An increase in property tax would be absolutely devastating to everyone. Oregon already has a problem with homeless and those that can barely keep up on their rent and mortgage payments this would make those even higher. This along with the utility companies raising their rates would an absolute nightmare. The state of Oregon already has one if the highest tax rates in the United States. This bill is absolutely wrong for all Oregonians!