I am shocked to read the text of this joint resolution. In a time, where inflation, caused by excessive, spending and money printing, where cost are climbing out of control for even Oregonians in the upper middle class, a new model comes along to try to place an excise tax to punish Oregonians for owning any property. Why is the property targeted not defined in the bill? How could the term intangible property be used and misused in the pursuit of money?

It seems that the legislature in Salem is doing everything it can to make Oregon a terrible place to live, and do business. Anyone who votes for this bill will be under serious risk of being removed from office in the next election.

It is truly outrageous.
