Measure: HJR201

Hello, I am a Gresham homeowner that is retired living on social security and a couple of small pensions. My property taxes are already very high, almost $7,000 a year. Oregon is already one of the highest taxed states, and something like this won't attract more taxpayers. Something this drastic should be put before the people for a referendum vote, rather than shoved through the legislature against the will of the people. Please don't enact this. Thank you for your consideration
Respectfully yours,
Phil Glynn
