

Submitter: Glenn Gaither

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HJR201

In an economy, where everyone is suffering under inflation, the takeover of property taxes by the state, is hostile towards the working, middle class and seniors on a fixed income. With the states lack of oversight on spending, it's inability to account for hundreds of millions of tax payer dollars, giving the reigns to individual citizens wealth, is asking for abuse.