

Submitter: Kevin HamlerDupras

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1583

We don't allow discriminatory practices in the workplace, so why should we allow them in our public schools and libraries? The first amendment demands that people have access to information and literature that is not subjected to the censorship of groups that would have their views prevail over all others at the expense of free speech.