

Submitter: Jolene Cox
On Behalf Of:
Committee: House Committee On Rules
Measure: HJR201

Across the state there has been a push for the need of “affordable” housing. At the same time, the State of Oregon wants to increase the tax burden on those who already own homes. One might reasonably question, are you really working towards fixing our homeless population problem or perpetuating it?