This is radically wrong to think the state has the best opinion of how my children should be taught. I'm a follower of Jesus Christ and the books that are promoted by the state are nothing but pure anti-good, God and moral anything. The one book that should be back in public schools as mandatory reading is the bible. The State's endorsement of debauchery has lead to a debased and depraved society with out a moral compass.

Judges 17:6 In those days there was no king in Israel; everyone did what was right in his own eyes.

Without a moral standard from our Lord and King Jesus Christ, all hell is breaking loose and the fault is on all who are purposefully driving this nations away from the word of God. The bible is clear on race. There is only one, the human race. The bible is clear on sex, anything outside marriage is going to lead to personal pain and eternal death. The bible is clear about who God is. He is our Creator and we have a more accountability to Him. These simple but profound truths lead to a right and just society. The State does not have my children's best interest in mind when the state is promoting anything and everything that is from the pit's of hell. I oppose this agenda and I pray the souls responsible for even bringing such a ridiculous law to the floor would repent not only of these ill Ideas, but all their sin and turn to Jesus who longs to and desires to save even them.

God bless America. God bless all who seek His face!
