I am a Senior and on a limited income with all the other rising prices we can't afford higher property taxes. If this is passed all the renters too will be affected.. More homelessness , more depression, is this your goal Tina? We have working class people leave our beautiful State because of Your Policies and Laws that not only do the people feel you don't hear them, and say we can't afford all your projects that are cause the things you introduced.. I would call that a FAIL... When people are homeless and hungry because of your policies and laws violence most assuredly followst.. Is this the out come you are looking for Tina? If your answer is Yes, then That is evil and not humane as you preach. Wake up and use common sense.
