

Submitter: Helen Cotton Leiser

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Education

Measure: SB1583

Access to all literature is critical. These parents who are opposed were not harmed by reading Shakespeare or by reading Who Killed a Mockingbird.

Parents have always had the right to restrict what library books their children read.

Denying children and young adults access to all literature is disrespectful and harming to this generation.