Measure: HJR201

I am writing to vehemently oppose HJR 201, as it threatens to burden Oregonians with excessive taxes and undermines local control over property taxes. This proposal disregards the financial strain already imposed on Oregon residents, who currently endure higher tax rates compared to many other states.

I urge you to reject HJR 201 and uphold the rights of Oregonians to fair taxation and local control over property taxes. Let us not further jeopardize the well-being and stability of our communities through shortsighted policies.
