Measure: SB1583

This measure is not really about discrimination. It is about local control by parents. The very word "discrimination" has become twisted. All thinking and decision making involves some kind of constructive discrimination. Our ancestors would have all been eaten if they couldn't discriminate between leopards and baboons. The instructional materials that are at issue are homoerotic pornography and propaganda; often of the transgender sort. When conservative activists attempt to display these materials at school board meetings, they are met by howls of "Obscenity, obscenity, you can't read that aloud." What further proof is needed that these materials do not belong in schools? The attempt to introduce them is plainly insincere and destructive. No one is crazy enough to introduce comparable heteronormative pornographic propaganda to children, because that lands you in the slammer.

Medical authorities in the UK and Scandinavia have put a moratorium on "gender affirming care" for minors because of evidence of harm. Children do not NEED access to any kind of pornographic propaganda.
