

Submitter: Michael Burns

On Behalf Of:

Committee: House Committee On Rules

Measure: HJR201

There should be no new laws, amendments, or anything of the nature until those that are already on the books are utilized. Most importantly anything that changes the constitution should be a criminal offense.