I grew up boating and skiing on the upper Willamette. It created many great family memories.

All I want to do is give my children those same lasting memories.

I had so much fun and experienced so much joy as a kid. Granted we didn't have wake boats back then, but we still had great fun.

No wait, we didn't have fun, because you need a wake boat to have fun as a family. I didn't mean to say that.

Never mind.
