I strongly oppose this bill. The state of Oregon does not need yet another governing body, appointed by the governor to oversee public safety. Law enforcement agencies in the state are responsible for public safety and do not need to be hamstrung by a task force making rules that have never been in law enforcement. These bills that get passed cause nothing but problems for LE agencies. For example, Melissa's Law and the implementation of SAMS track. Perfect examples of bills passed by people who have never been in LE and don't understand the implications of the rules they make.
