

Submitter: Joseph Whisler

On Behalf
Of:

Committee: Joint Committee On Ways and Means Subcommittee On Capital
Construction

Measure: HB5201

I don't believe taxpayer money should ever be spent to prop up a failing entertainment venture. If the baseball team can't figure out a way to stay in business through private funds, I think that's just too bad for them because the public shouldn't have to pay to keep their business running.