

Submitter: Ruby Garmyn

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Finance and Revenue

Measure: SB1593

forest landowners in Oregon ALREADY directly pay more for fire prevention and suppression than in any other state and the real reason fire costs are increasing is from lack of management on federal forests – NOT active management on private land that reduces wildfire risk.