House Committee on Judiciary:

We do not need any further laws about the M110 caused issues. I have an easy answer--repeal the M110, which should have never been proposed for the people to vote upon, especially by the legislative assembly.

There, problem resolved. Drugs are illegal again and problems can be address.

Remember, just last Thursday, on KGW news a street drug person was asked about naloxolone, he responded 'it was good, because he had overdosed 30 times last year' (paraphrased); sounds like someone for whom we have no answer except jail to save their life.

Thank you,
