“No discrimination” is tacit consent for all materials no matter how evil, perverse or dangerous. This is a foolish and dangerous course of action for any civil society.

There will be discrimination, but it will fall into the hands of a few thereby discriminating against, and denying free speech (input) to any outside the circle of control. All the power to the state?

When the right of the governed to speak out and discriminate against the actions of those elected is removed, that is the definition of tyranny.
