

SB 807 STAFF MEASURE SUMMARY

Senate Committee On Veterans, Emergency Management, Federal and World Affairs

Prepared By: Kevin Rancik, LPRO Analyst

Sub-Referral To: Joint Committee On Ways and Means

Meeting Dates: 1/30

WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

The measure allows the Adjutant General to pay a bonus to members of the Oregon National Guard who reenlist or extend their period of service for at least 3 years and agree to any other conditions required by the Adjutant General. The bonus must be repaid if the member fails to complete the agreed-upon conditions or period of service; exceptions may be granted in specified circumstances.

Fiscal impact: May have fiscal impact, but no statement yet issued

Revenue impact: May have revenue impact, but no statement yet issued

Detailed Summary

Allows the Adjutant General to pay a bonus to members of the Oregon National Guard who:

- Reenlist or extend their period of service for at least 3 years; and
- Enter a written agreement with the Adjutant General including the bonus amount; payment schedule; period of service; type or condition of service; and any other conditions required by the Adjutant General.

Allows active service to count toward the period of service. Requires repayment of bonus if member fails to complete the period of service or meet conditions in the written agreement.

Allows Adjutant General to waive repayment if:

- Repayment would go against personnel policy, administrative efficiency, or equity and good conscience;
- Member is discharged or released due to being the only surviving child in a family in which a parent or sibling served in the armed forces and was killed; died from wounds, accident or disease; is captured or missing in action; is permanently 100 percent disabled or requires continuous hospitalization; and these situations were not from intentional misconduct, willful neglect, or during a period of unauthorized absence; or
- Member dies, or is discharged or released with a combat-related disability not resulting from member misconduct.

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

The National Guard consists of the Army National Guard and Air National Guard, which can perform both state and federal functions. Members can be called upon to respond to state-level incidents and natural disasters, and members can also be deployed to support missions of or augment forces of the United States Armed Forces. Both the National Guard and branches of the military offer reenlistment bonuses to service members agreeing to extend their period of service, with varying requirements and bonuses. Activities of the Oregon National Guard are coordinated between the state Governor and Adjutant General.

Senate Bill 807 would allow the Adjutant General to pay a bonus to Oregon National Guard members who reenlist or extend their service period by at least 3 years, with members repaying the bonus amount in specified
