

Presentation to the Senate Committee on Human Services

Resource and income standards across medical, food, cash and child care programs

Nate Singer, Director
Oregon Eligibility Partnership

February 13, 2025

ONE Eligibility system supports 1 in 3 Oregonians

People in Oregon can apply for benefits any way they choose – online, over the phone, or in person at a local office

Staff have tools and resources to help people in Oregon – regardless of where they live or the benefits they receive

Across Programs

One Application
for Multiple Programs –
Medical, food, cash and child care

ODHS, OHA and DELC programs

OEP manages eligibility for more than 1.57 million Oregonians across cases

Eligibility allows for almost $18 billion in benefits to be issued annually for medical, food, cash, and child care

Caseloads have increased additional 500,000 individuals since 2020.

Resources

Income

Definition:

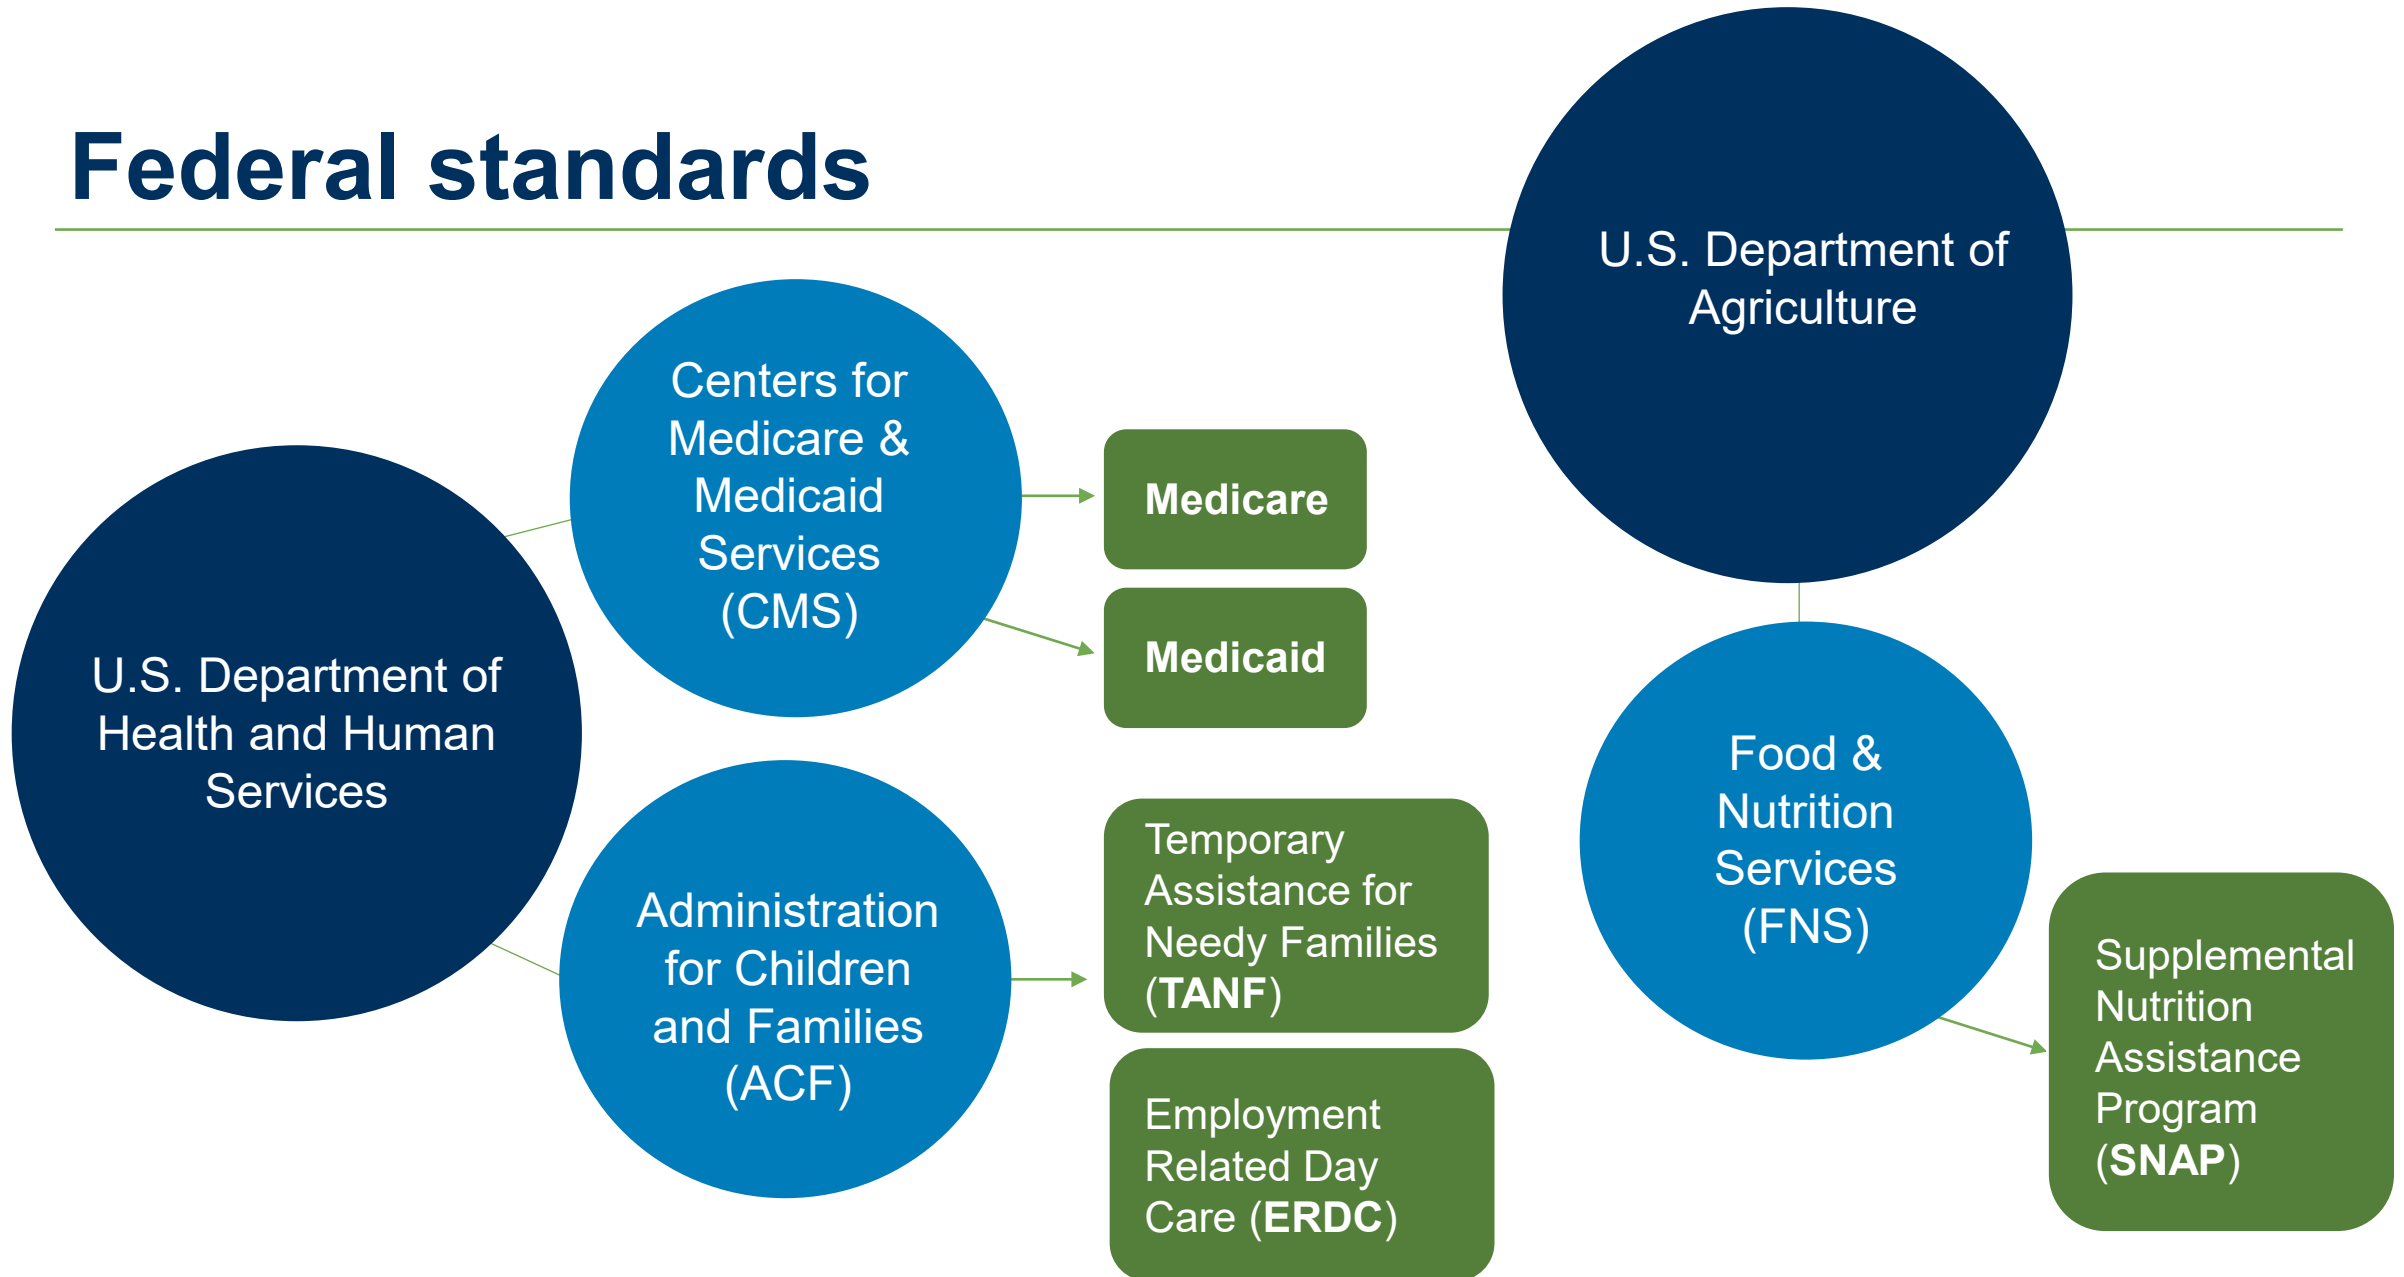

Any money or payment received by an individual or household

Earned or unearned, countable or excluded, available or unavailable.

Considered in eligibility determinations for a variety of programs.

Treatment can be complex and vary greatly by program.
