BACKGROUND:

Oregon offers a variety of assistance programs to support homeless veterans and their families, aiming to provide stable housing and essential services. HUD-VA Supportive Housing (HUD-VASH): A collaboration between the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA), offering rental assistance vouchers combined with VA supportive services to help homeless veterans and their families find and sustain permanent housing. Oregon Veterans' Emergency Financial Assistance Program (OVEFAP): Provides one-time financial aid to veterans and their immediate families facing emergencies, covering needs like housing, utilities, and medical expenses. Drop-in centers provide a daytime sanctuary where homeless veterans can clean up, wash their clothing, and participate in a variety of therapeutic and rehabilitative activities. Linkages with longer-term assistance are also available. Easterseals Oregon – Supportive Services for Veteran Families (SSVF) assists veterans and their families in securing permanent housing, preventing eviction, obtaining necessary documentation, and accessing benefits. St. Vincent de Paul's Vet LIFT Program offers emergency shelter, transitional housing, and permanent supportive housing for veterans experiencing homelessness, in collaboration with the local Veterans Administration.
