Prepared By: Ellen O'Brien, LPRO Analyst

Sub-Referral To: Joint Committee On Ways and Means

Meeting Dates: 3/17

WHAT THE MEASURE DOES:

The measure modifies the tuition waiver available for dependents of disabled or deceased service members and Purple Heart recipients. It reduces the disability requirement for service members from 100 to 80 percent disabled and expands the waiver to community colleges and registered apprenticeship programs. It allows dependents of Purple Heart recipients to qualify only if Oregon was that person's home of record at the time of entry into active duty. It raises the age by which a dependent child must apply for the waiver from 23 to 25. It requires institutions to waive fees and the cost of textbooks in addition to tuition and prohibits the amount of tuition waived from being reduced by specified aid, awards, grants, and scholarships. The measure takes effect on the 91st day after adjournment.
