EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

Energy Savings Performance Contracts (ESPC) are agreements between a public agency and a qualified Energy Service Company (ESCO), which, according to the Oregon Department of Energy (ODOE), "can help schools and public agencies identify, evaluate, recommend, and design energy conservation measures that guarantee energy savings or performance." ODOE maintains a list of pre-qualified ESCOs that state agencies can utilize to find one; there are currently seven active qualified energy service companies on the list.
