BACKGROUND:

House Bill 3021 A updates ORS chapters 657 and 657B to align existing practices and procedures with changes in law.

In 2019, the Legislative Assembly established the paid family and medical leave insurance program (Paid Leave Oregon) and charged the Oregon Employment Department (OED) with its implementation and administration. The measure updates OED administrative statutes to include Paid Leave Oregon as a program that the agency has general rulemaking, administrative, and enforcement responsibilities over.

The agency had been responsible for the coordination of child care policy and planning, technical assistance to child care providers, and certification of child care facilities. These responsibilities were moved from OED to the Early Learning Division in the Oregon Department of Education in 2013. In 2023, all child care programs and early care and education programs were consolidated at the Department of Early Learning and Care (DELIC), including programs once administered by OED. The measure repeals the statutes related to child care.

Oregon's unemployment insurance (UI) laws must conform with federal law. Failure to conform with federal law could result in employers having to pay more UI taxes and result in loss of federal funding to administer the UI program. There are times when legislation to change ORS chapter 657 is introduced without considering conformity with federal law. This measure removes the need to include conforming language in future UI legislation and protects against adverse effects if any changes in law are determined to be non-conforming.
