- Private security provider certifications and licenses are issued for a 2-year period.
- The last fee increase for the program was effective November 1, 2022.
- Key drivers for the provider fee increases included the pay equity salary increases in 2024 and legal expenses for DOJ services.

Private Security Entity Fees

	Prior Fee	Fee Effective February 1, 2025
Private Security Entity	$624	$936

- Private security entity licenses are issued for one year, July 1 through June 30.
- Private security entity licensing began January 1, 2024. HB 2527 (2021)
- This fee is most significantly affected by the total number of applicants.

Private Investigator Fees

	Prior Fee	Fee Effective February 1, 2025
Investigator License	$550	$690
Late Renewal Fee	$30	$35

- Investigator licenses are issued for a 2-year period.
- The late fee and replacement fee were last increased effective November 1, 2022.
- The $550 license fee had been the same since 2006.
- Key drivers for the investigator license fee increase included the pay equity salary increases in 2024, legal expenses for DOJ services, and overall cost increases over time.
