BACKGROUND:

The Oregon Board of Maritime Pilots (OBMP) was established in 1846 and is currently under the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission. OBMP's mission is to promote public safety by ensuring qualified persons pilot vessels entering and leaving Oregon's ports, and the Board establishes programs for pilot trainee and apprentice selection and training, incident investigations, license administration, and ratemaking.

Statute establishes that the OBMP consists of nine members (ORS 776.105) and that three of these members must be a Columbia River Bar licensee, a Columbia River licensee, and a Coos Bay or Yaquina Bay licensee. Each of these specific OBMP members are required to be Oregon residents.
