BACKGROUND:

House Bill 2696 (2023) established the Oregon Board of Sign Language Interpreters (Board) under the Health Licensing Office (HLO). The Board regulates supervisory, generalist, provisional, medical, legal, and educational sign language interpreters. HB 2696 also required all individuals who perform sign language interpretation services to obtain licensure by January 1, 2024. HLO issues temporary licenses to sign language interpreters, and it is the responsibility of the Board to adopt rules and set permanent licensing requirements.

Senate Bill 950 A specifies requirements for sign language interpreters from other states to practice in Oregon, repeals provisions for specialty licenses, and modifies renewal requirements.
