ORS 291.055(1)(e) stipulates that all new state agency fees or fee increases adopted between the date of adjournment sine die of a regular session of the Legislative Assembly, and the date of adjournment sine die of the next regular session of the Legislative Assembly, are rescinded upon adjournment sine die of the next regular session of the Legislative Assembly unless the fee is authorized by enabling legislation.

ORS 181A.870 allows the Board on Public Safety Standards and Training, in collaboration with the Private Security and Investigator Policy Committee, to establish fees for issuing certifications and licenses to private security providers. The fees may not exceed the costs for administration of the certification and licensing program, the criminal records check, and any training program required by rule. The most recent change to these fees was 2023.

ORS 181A.900 allows the Board on Public Safety Standards and Training to establish fees for issuing licenses to private security entities. The fees may not exceed the costs for administration of the licensing program, the license examination, and the investigation of each applicant's character, competence, and reliability. There have been no changes since this was established in 2023.

ORS 703.480 allows the Board on Public Safety Standards and Training, in collaboration with the Private Security and Investigator Committee, to establish fees for applications and issuing licenses to private investigators. The fees may not exceed the costs for administration of the program. The most recent change to these fees was 2022.

The Department of Public Safety Standards and Training anticipates the fee increases will generate approximately $1 million of Other Funds revenue during the 2025-27 biennium based on the most recent 12-month average of licenses and certifications.

Relevant Dates

The measure declares an emergency and takes effect on July 1, 2025.
