ISSUES DISCUSSED:

EFFECT OF AMENDMENT:

No amendment.

BACKGROUND:

Taxpayers due a personal income tax refund may donate all, or a portion, of their tax refund at time of tax return filing to a charitable organization included in Oregon's charitable checkoff program. To qualify for inclusion in the charitable checkoff program organizations must meet established requirements including the submission to the Department of Revenue (DOR), 10,000 or more signatures from registered Oregon voters attesting that the individuals support the organization being listed in the personal income tax booklet as an eligible organization to receive donations from Oregon taxpayer personal income tax refunds. Under current DOR rules, signatures must be collected by a petition circulator that is present and sees each person sign the petition. Measure allows DOR to establish rules allowing electronic collection of signatures of electors.
