SUMMARY

Digest: The measure asks voters to change when recall elections take place. (Flesch readability score: 74.8).

Proposes an amendment to the Oregon Constitution to change when elections that consider the recall of an elected official must take place and to require the recall measure to be placed on the ballot for the next regularly scheduled election following the recall petition certification, or the following regularly scheduled election if the recall petition certification occurs after the filing deadline for the first election.

Refers the proposed amendment to the voters at the next regular general election.
