Prepared by: Dexter A. Johnson
Date: 4/17/2025

SUMMARY

Digest: Makes changes to the EFSC site certificate process. (Flesch Readability Score: 61.2).

Requires the Energy Facility Siting Council to conclude a contested case and issue a final order within 12 months from the date of a proposed order.

Requires the council to include in all final orders approving or rejecting an application for a site certificate or amended site certificate any decisions related to or arising from a contested case on the application. Requires a petitioner to establish individual or associational standing to appeal a final order. Provides that the council's approval or rejection of an application or request for an amendment, including decisions related to or arising from a contested case on the application or request, is conferred upon the Supreme Court.

Allows a person who holds a site certificate to request to add area to the approved site boundary without the council requiring an amendment to the site certificate.
