Summary of Capital Construction Subcommittee Action

Senate Bill 5505 limits the maximum amount of bonds and third party financing agreements state agencies may issue and the amount of revenue state agencies may raise from such issuance. The proceeds from the issuance of bonds are included as revenues in agency budgets. This bill also allocates the federal tax-exempt private activity bond volume cap allowed under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, to certain state agencies and the Private Activity Bond Committee established in ORS 286A.615.

The Subcommittee approved bond authorizations in Senate Bill 5505 for the following purposes:

General Fund Obligations

1. The Subcommittee approved Article XI-G general obligation bond authority of $143,065,000 to fund grants to Public Universities and Community Colleges to finance four capital projects for Public Universities, three new capital projects for Community Colleges, and two reauthorized capital projects approved during previous legislative sessions for Community Colleges. The proceeds of the bonds will be used to provide grants through grant programs administered by the Higher Education Coordinating Commission (HECC). The bill also increases the maximum allowable authorization amount for Community College projects to $12 million. Projects are described later in this report.
2. The Subcommittee approved Article XI-M general obligation bond authority of $100,910,000, which includes net proceeds of $100,000,000 and $910,000 for costs of issuing bonds and approved Article XI-N general obligation bond authority of $50,580,000, which includes net proceeds of $50,000,000 and $580,000 for costs of issuing bonds. The proceeds of the Article XI-M bonds will be used to provide grants for Seismic Rehabilitation of Public Education Buildings, and the proceeds of the Article XI-N bonds will be used to provide grants for Seismic Rehabilitation of Emergency Services Buildings through grant programs administered by the Oregon Business Development Department.
3. The Subcommittee approved Article XI-P general obligation bond authority of $50,455,000, which includes $50,000,000 in net proceeds and $455,000 for costs of issuing bonds, to fund matching grants to school districts for capital costs including construction, improvement, or remodel of facilities and acquisition of equipment through the Oregon School Capital Improvement Match grant program administered by the Oregon Department of Education.

4. The Subcommittee approved General Fund supported Article XI-Q general obligation bond authority of $1,206,991,215 to finance the capital costs of projects for real or personal property owned or operated by the state. Detail of projects authorized for the Higher Education Coordinating Commission through bond financing is included below.

Higher Education Coordinating Commission

HECC – Public Universities

The Subcommittee approved seven new capital projects for public universities to finance total project costs of $449,447,853. The projects are included in the budget for the Higher Education Coordinating Commission (HECC). The proceeds of Article XI-G and Article XI-Q general obligation bonds will be used to provide grants from HECC to the applicable public university, and the debt service on these bonds will be paid with General Fund. The proceeds of Article XI-F(1) bonds will be used to provide loans from HECC to the applicable public university, and the debt service on the Article XI-F(1) bonds will be paid by HECC with Other Funds using loan repayments received from the applicable university made with university resources. The approved projects are listed below.

All Public Universities

The Subcommittee approved the following project for the seven public universities, to be allocated to each individual university by HECC:

- Capital Improvement and Renewal: approved $120,930,000 Article XI-Q bonds to finance $120,000,000 of project costs and $930,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The capital improvement projects will address deferred maintenance, code compliance, safety issues, and Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) accessibility improvements for campus facilities. The projects will not involve: acquisition of buildings, structures, or land; classroom or lab modernization; or improvements to auxiliary facilities, which are typically self-supporting.

Portland State University

- Portland Center for the Performing Arts Academic Building: approved $85,660,000 Article XI-G general obligation bonds to finance $85,000,000 of project costs and $660,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project will construct a new Center for the Performing Arts Academic Building, which will include a 3,000-seat performing arts facility and a 1,200-seat secondary venue along with supporting academic spaces, a 150-room hotel, restaurants, bars and other supporting spaces.
- Portland Center for the Performing Arts Parking Structure: approved $53,010,000 Article XI-F(1) general obligation bonds to finance $52,540,000 of project costs and $470,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project will construct a parking structure for the new Center for Performing Arts facility.
- Student Housing: approved $85,660,000 Article XI-F(1) general obligation bonds to finance $85,000,000 of project costs and $660,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project is to construct a new residential building on west campus. The residential building will include approximately 576 beds as well as student support spaces.

University of Oregon

- Child Behavioral Health Building: approved $35,855,000 Article XI-Q general obligation bonds to finance $35,500,000 of project costs and $355,000 for costs of issuing the bonds and $17,920,000 Article XI-G general obligation bonds to finance $17,750,000 of project costs and $170,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project will construct a new facility on UO's Portland campus, which will house the Ballmer Institute for Children's Behavioral Health and the Prevention Science Institute facility in Portland, two units which are devoted to developing innovative ways to support children's behavioral health. The facility will be approximately three stories and 54,000 gross sq ft, and include two classrooms, a behavioral health clinic, a telehealth center, offices and collaboration spaces, as well as reception and waiting room areas.

Southern Oregon University

- Creative Industries/Student Success: approved $38,470,000 Article XI-Q general obligation bonds to finance $38,100,000 of project costs and $370,000 for costs of issuing the bonds and $2,485,000 Article XI-G general obligation bonds to finance $2,450,000 of project costs and $35,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project will renovate SOU's existing Music Building and Digital Media Center Building. The project will be done in two phases, with the Music Building renovation first, integrating the Music and Digital Media programs together, forming the Creative Industries Center. The Digital Media Center Building will then be renovated for Physical Education programs, Wrestling and ROTC, creating the Student Success and Leadership Center.

Western Oregon University

- Data Center: approved $12,555,000 Article XI-Q general obligation bonds to finance $12,417,966 of project costs and $137,034 for costs of issuing the bonds and $715,000 Article XI-G general obligation bonds to finance $689,887 of project costs and $25,113 for costs of issuing the bonds. HECC - Community Colleges

The Subcommittee approved three new capital projects and reauthorized two capital projects approved in prior biennia for community colleges to finance total project costs of $35,900,000. The projects are included in the budget for the Higher Education Coordinating Commission (HECC). The proceeds of Article XI-G bonds will be used to provide grants from HECC to the applicable community college, and the debt service on the bonds will be paid with General Fund. Each community college must provide the constitutionally required match for the Article XI-G bonds before the bonds can be issued. Match funds may come from a variety of sources including grants, donations, partnership contributions, local bond levies, or some combination of sources. The reauthorized projects are listed below.

- Clackamas Community College – Center for Excellence for Farming, Horticulture and Wildland Fire: approved $8,085,000 Article XI-G bonds to finance $8,000,000 of project costs and $85,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project is to construct a modern training facility to serve horticulture, arboriculture, wildland fire and other related programs. The community college will provide the constitutionally required match for the Article XI-G bonds through a combination of a bond levy and donations.
- Klamath Community College – Cosmetology ADA Remediation: approved $4,045,000 Article XI-G bonds to finance $4,000,000 of project costs and $45,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project is to construct a new facility specifically designed to accommodate the program. The community college will provide the constitutionally required match for the Article XI-G bonds through grants and/or donations.
- Mt. Hood Community College – Classroom and Lab Renovations: approved $8,085,000 Article XI-G bonds to finance $8,000,000 of project costs and $85,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project will upgrade and modernize classrooms and labs to ensure safety, provide modern technology, promote innovation, and support student completion as part of the skilled workforce. The project also repurposes existing space to create a Health Professions Lab. The community college will provide the constitutionally required match for the Article XI-G bonds through a bond levy.
- Clatsop Community College – Maritime Science Building: reauthorized $7,985,000 Article XI-G bonds to finance $7,900,000 of project costs and $85,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project will remodel the existing maritime building to equip it with labs and simulators for educational training as part of the Maritime Science Degree Program. The community college will provide the constitutionally required match for the Article XI-G bonds through college capital funds.
- Southwestern Oregon Community College – Student Uplift and Collaboration Create Expanded Support and Success: reauthorized $8,085,000 Article XI-G bonds to finance $8,000,000 of project costs and $85,000 for costs of issuing the bonds. The project will remodel Tioga, Stensland and Dellwood Hall to combine student support services into one building, to improve collaboration and communication between departments, to relocate the library for equitable access and safety for students and establish a student union for student activities. The community college will provide the constitutionally required match for the Article XI-G bonds through college capital funds.
