803.600. A trip permit grants authority to temporarily operate a vehicle on the highways of this state under circumstances where the operation would not otherwise be legal because the vehicle is not registered by this state or because provisions relating to the vehicle's registration do not allow the operation. The Department of Transportation shall provide for the issuance of trip permits in a manner consistent with this section. All of the following apply to permits issued under this section:

(1) The department shall issue the following types of trip permits to authorize the described type of operation and, except as provided in [subsection] subsections (2) and (3) of this section, may not issue trip permits for any other purpose:

2 in a 12-month period for any one vehicle unless all registered owners of the vehicle are replaced
3 by new owners. If there is a complete change in ownership of the vehicle, as shown by the regis-
4 tration records for the vehicle, a new owner may receive permits for the vehicle under this para-
5 graph as if no permits had been issued for the vehicle. This paragraph does not apply to campers,
6 travel trailers or motor homes, which are eligible for recreational vehicle trip permits under para-
7 graph (e) of this subsection.

8 (e) A recreational vehicle trip permit may be issued for a period of up to 10 consecutive days

17 mitted by the registration weight established for the vehicle or at a greater combined weight or 18 loaded weight than is otherwise permitted under the registration for the vehicle if the vehicle is not 19 required to establish a registration weight. A permit issued under this paragraph does not authorize 20 movements or operations for which a variance permit is required under ORS 818.200. A permit is-21 sued under this paragraph shall show the maximum registration weight allowed for operation under 22 the permit. A permit issued under this paragraph is valid for 10 consecutive days.

24 to allow the vehicle to operate under conditions or in ways not permitted by the terms of the vehicle
