

House Bill 2932

Introduced and printed pursuant to House Rule 12.00. Pre-session filed (at the request of Governor Tina Kotek for Oregon Government Ethics Commission)

SUMMARY

The following summary is not prepared by the sponsors of the measure and is not a part of the body thereof subject to consideration by the Legislative Assembly. It is an editor's brief statement of the essential features of the measure as introduced. The statement includes a measure digest written in compliance with applicable readability standards.

Digest: Allows a public official to get paid for teaching at certain schools. (Flesch Readability Score: 67.7).

Provides an exception to the prohibition against a public official using official position or office for financial gain or avoidance of financial detriment. Permits a public official to receive compensation from a post-secondary institution in exchange for teaching one or more courses at the institution.

A BILL FOR AN ACT

1
2 Relating to exceptions to prohibited use of official position or office; amending ORS 244.040.

3 Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

4 SECTION 1. ORS 244.040 is amended to read:

5 244.040. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, a public official may not use or
6 attempt to use official position or office to obtain financial gain or avoidance of financial detriment
7 for the public official, a relative or member of the household of the public official, or any business
8 with which the public official or a relative or member of the household of the public official is as-
9 sociated, if the financial gain or avoidance of financial detriment would not otherwise be available
10 but for the public official's holding of the official position or office.

11 (2) Subsection (1) of this section does not apply to:

12 (a) Any part of an official compensation package as determined by the public body that the 13 public official serves.

14 (b) The receipt by a public official or a relative or member of the household of the public official
15 of an honorarium or any other item allowed under ORS 244.042.

16 (c) Reimbursement of expenses.

17 (d) An unsolicited award for professional achievement.

18 (e) Gifts that do not exceed the limits specified in ORS 244.025 received by a public official or
19 a relative or member of the household of the public official from a source that could reasonably be 20 known to have a legislative or administrative interest.

21 (f) Gifts received by a public official or a relative or member of the household of the public of-
22 ficial from a source that could not reasonably be known to have a legislative or administrative in-
23 terest.

24 (g) The receipt by a public official or a relative or member of the household of the public official
25 of any item, regardless of value, that is expressly excluded from the definition of "gift" in ORS
26 244.020.

27 (h) Contributions made to a legal expense trust fund established under ORS 244.209 for the 28 benefit of the public official.

NOTE: Matter in boldfaced type in an amended section is new; matter [italic and bracketed] is existing law to be omitted. New sections are in boldfaced type.

1       (i) Compensation received by the public official from any post-secondary institution paid
2 in exchange for the public official teaching one or more courses at the institution.

3       (3) A public official may not solicit or receive, either directly or indirectly, and a person may
4 not offer or give to any public official any pledge or promise of future employment, based on any
5 understanding that the vote, official action or judgment of the public official would be influenced
6 by the pledge or promise.

7       (4) A public official may not attempt to further or further the personal gain of the public official
8 through the use of confidential information gained in the course of or by reason of holding position
9 as a public official or activities of the public official.

10       (5) A former public official may not attempt to further or further the personal gain of any person
11 through the use of confidential information gained in the course of or by reason of holding position
12 as a public official or the activities of the person as a public official.

13       (6) A person may not attempt to represent or represent a client for a fee before the governing
14 body of a public body of which the person is a member. This subsection does not apply to the 15 person's employer, business partner or other associate.

16       (7) A current or former public official may not solicit, receive or use public moneys from a
17 public body, as defined in ORS 174.109, to pay or make payments on a civil penalty imposed on the 18 current or former public official by the Oregon Government Ethics Commission in accordance with 19 ORS 171.992 or 244.350.

20       (8) The provisions of this section apply regardless of whether actual conflicts of interest or po-
21 tential conflicts of interest are announced or disclosed under ORS 244.120.

22       (9) As used in this section, the term "post-secondary institution" has the meaning given
23 the term "eligible post-secondary institution" in ORS 348.180.

24