A BILL FOR AN ACT

Relating to published defamatory statements; amending ORS 31.205, 31.210, 31.215 and 31.220.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. ORS 31.205 is amended to read:

31.205. Except as provided in ORS 31.210, in an action for damages on account of a defamatory statement published or broadcast in a printed or electronic newspaper, magazine[,] or other [printed] periodical, or by radio, television or motion pictures, the plaintiff may recover any general and special damages [which] that, by competent evidence, the plaintiff can prove to have suffered as a direct and proximate result of the publication of the defamatory statement.

SECTION 2. ORS 31.210 is amended to read:

31.210. (1) In an action for damages on account of a defamatory statement published or broadcast in a printed or electronic newspaper, magazine[,] or other [printed] periodical, or by radio, television or motion pictures, the plaintiff shall not recover general damages unless:

(a) A correction or retraction is demanded but not published as provided in ORS 31.215; or

(b) The plaintiff proves by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant actually intended to defame the plaintiff.

(2) Where the plaintiff is entitled to recover general damages, the publication of a correction or retraction may be considered in mitigation of damages.

SECTION 3. ORS 31.215 is amended to read:

31.215. (1) [The] A demand for correction or retraction [shall] of a defamatory statement must be in writing, signed by the defamed person or the attorney of the person and be delivered to the publisher of the defamatory statement, either personally, by registered mail or by certified mail with return receipt at the publisher's place of business or residence within [20] 40 days after the defamed person receives actual knowledge of the defamatory statement. The demand [shall] must specify which statements are false and defamatory and request that they be corrected or retracted. The demand may also refer to the sources from which the true facts may be ascertained with accuracy.

[(2) The publisher of the defamatory statement shall have not more than two weeks after receipt
