16 point, national primary or state primary, as defined in 47 C.F.R. 11.18, as in effect on the

17 effective date of this 2025 Act; and

18 “(B) Distributes the noncommercial educational broadcast station’s journalism content

19 without cost to recipients.

20 “(3) ORS 646A.570 to 646A.589 do not prohibit a controller or processor from:

21 “(a) Complying with federal, state or local statutes, ordinances, rules or regulations;

22 “(b) Complying with a federal, state or local governmental inquiry, investigation, subpoena or

23 summons related to a civil, criminal or administrative proceeding;

24 “(c) Cooperating with a law enforcement agency concerning conduct or activity that the con-

25 troller or processor reasonably and in good faith believes may violate federal, state or local statutes,

26 ordinances, rules or regulations;

27 “(d) Investigating, establishing, initiating or defending legal claims;

28 “(e) Preventing, detecting, protecting against or responding to, and investigating, reporting or

29 prosecuting persons responsible for, security incidents, identity theft, fraud, harassment or mali-

30 cious, deceptive or illegal activity or preserving the integrity or security of systems;

31 “(f) Identifying and repairing technical errors in a controller’s or processor’s information sys-

32 tems that impair existing or intended functionality;

33 “(g) Providing a product or service that a consumer specifically requests from the controller or

34 processor or requests as the parent or guardian of a child on the child’s behalf or as the guardian

35 or conservator of a person subject to a guardianship, conservatorship or other protective arrange-

36 ment on the person’s behalf;

37 “(h) Negotiating, entering into or performing a contract with a consumer, including fulfilling the

38 terms of a written warranty;

39 “(i) Protecting any person’s health and safety;

40 “(j) Effectuating a product recall;

41 “(k) Conducting internal research to develop, improve or repair products, services or technology;

42 “(L) Performing internal operations that are reasonably aligned with a consumer’s expectations,

43 that the consumer may reasonably anticipate based on the consumer’s existing relationship with the

44 controller or that are otherwise compatible with processing data for the purpose of providing a

45 product or service the consumer specifically requested or for the purpose of performing a contract

1 to which the consumer is a party; or

2 “(m) Assisting another controller or processor with any of the activities set forth in this sub-
3 section.

4 “(4) ORS 646A.570 to 646A.589 do not apply to the extent that a controller’s or processor’s
5 compliance with ORS 646A.570 to 646A.589 would violate an evidentiary privilege under the laws
6 of this state. Notwithstanding the provisions of ORS 646A.570 to 646A.589, a controller or processor
7 may provide personal data about a consumer in a privileged communication to a person that is 8 covered by an evidentiary privilege under the laws of this state.

9 “(5) A controller may process personal data in accordance with subsection (3) of this section 10 only to the extent that the processing is adequate and reasonably necessary for, relevant to,
11 proportionate in relation to and limited to the purposes set forth in this section.

12 “(6) Collection, use and retention of personal data under subsection (3)(e) and (f) of this section
13 must, where applicable, take into account the nature and purpose of the collection, use or retention.
14 The personal data must be subject to reasonable administrative, technical and physical measures to 15 protect the confidentiality, integrity and security of the personal data and reduce reasonably fore-
16 seeable risks of harm to consumers from the collection, use or retention.

17 “(7) A controller that claims that the controller’s processing of personal data is exempt under 18 subsection (3) of this section has the burden of demonstrating that the controller’s processing qual-
19 ifies for the exemption and complies with the requirements of subsections (5) and (6) of this 20 section.”.
