CHAPTER .....

AN ACT

Relating to sign language interpreters; creating new provisions; amending ORS 676.753, 676.756, 676.759, 676.771, 676.783 and 676.786; repealing ORS 676.762, 676.765 and 676.768; and prescribing an effective date.

Be It Enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

SECTION 1. Sections 2 and 3 of this 2025 Act are added to and made a part of ORS 676.750 to 676.789.

SECTION 2. (1) A person who is licensed or otherwise authorized to provide signed language interpretation services in another state may provide signed language interpretation services in this state without obtaining a license from the State Board of Sign Language Interpreters if:

(a) The person’s license or other authorization is issued by a state recognized by the board as acceptable to qualify the person to provide signed language interpretation services in this state; and

(b) If requested by the person’s employer or entity for which the person contracts, the person demonstrates the license or other authorization is in good standing.

(2) Nothing in this section prohibits a person described in this section from applying for a license under ORS 676.750 to 676.789.

(3) The board may adopt rules to carry out this section. The board may not require a person described in this section to submit any information or pay a fee to the board in order to provide signed language interpretation services as allowed by this section.

SECTION 3. (1) The Health Licensing Office may issue a sign language interpreter-in-training license to an applicant who:

(a) Is at least 18 years of age;

(b) Demonstrates compliance with the code of professional conduct authored by the Registry of Interpreters for the Deaf, or its successor organization, and the National Association of the Deaf, or its successor organization, and approved by the State Board of Sign Language Interpreters;

(c) Meets the requirements established by the board relating to minimum qualifications, education or training or any combination thereof;

(d) Meets any other requirements established by the board; and

(e) Pays a fee established by the board. The fees established under this paragraph may not, together with other fees collected under ORS 676.750 to 676.789, exceed the cost of administering ORS 676.750 to 676.789.

(2) Notwithstanding ORS 676.572, the board may determine whether a license issued under this section may be renewed on a case by case basis.

(3)(a) A licensed sign language interpreter-in-training may provide signed language interpretation services only under the direct, in-person supervision of a licensed supervisory sign language interpreter or a licensed sign language interpreter.

(b) A licensed supervisory sign language interpreter or licensed sign language interpreter who supervises a licensed sign language interpreter-in-training is responsible for the signed language services provided by the licensed sign language interpreter-in-training.

SECTION 4. ORS 676.753 is amended to read:

676.753. (1) The Health Licensing Office may issue a supervisory sign language interpreter license to an applicant who:

(a) Is at least 18 years of age;
