12 “PRE-PLEA SPECIALTY COURT PROBATION AGREEMENTS

13
14 “SECTION 28. ORS 137.532 is amended to read:

15 “137.532. (1)(a) Whenever a person is charged with a misdemeanor or a
16 Class C felony, other than driving while under the influence of intoxicants, 17 and has been formally accepted into a specialty court, the court, with the 18 consent of the district attorney and the person, may defer further pro-
19 ceedings and place the person on probation. The terms of the probation shall 20 be defined by a probation agreement.

21 “(b) A probation agreement carries the understanding that if the defend-22 ant fulfills the terms of the agreement, the criminal charges filed against the 23 defendant will be dismissed with prejudice.

24 “(c) The agreement must contain a waiver of the following rights of the 25 defendant with respect to each criminal charge:

26 “(A) The right to a speedy trial and trial by jury;

27 “(B) The right to present evidence on the defendant’s behalf;

28 “(C) The right to confront and cross-examine witnesses against the de-
29 fendant;

30 “(D) The right to contest evidence presented against the defendant, including the right to object to hearsay evidence; and “(E) The right to appeal from a judgment of conviction resulting from an adjudication of guilt entered under subsection (2) of this section, unless the appeal is based on an allegation that the sentence exceeds the maximum allowed by law or constitutes cruel and unusual punishment.

“(d) The agreement must include a requirement that the defendant pay any restitution owed to the victim as determined by the court, and any fees for court-appointed counsel ordered by the court under ORS 135.050.

“(e) The agreement may not contain a requirement that the defendant enter a plea of guilty or no contest on any charge in the accusatory instrument.

“(f) Entering into a probation agreement does not constitute an admission of guilt and is not sufficient to warrant a finding or adjudication of guilt by a court.

“(g) Police reports or other documents associated with the criminal charges in a court file other than the probation agreement may not be admitted into evidence, and do not establish a factual basis for finding the defendant guilty, unless the court resumes criminal proceedings and enters an adjudication of guilt under subsection (2) of this section.

“(2) Upon violation of a term or condition of the probation agreement, the court may resume the criminal proceedings [and may find the defendant guilty of the offenses in the accusatory instrument] in accordance with the waiver of rights in the probation agreement. The defendant may not contest the sufficiency of the evidence establishing the defendant’s guilt of the offenses in the accusatory instrument.

“(3) Upon fulfillment of the terms and conditions of the probation agreement, the court shall discharge the person and dismiss the proceedings against the person. Discharge and dismissal under this section shall be without adjudication of guilt and is not a conviction for purposes of this section or for purposes of disqualifications or disabilities imposed by law

1 upon conviction of a crime. There may be only one discharge and dismissal
2 under this section with respect to any person.

3 “(4) In the event that the period of probation under this section expires,
4 but the terms and conditions of the probation agreement have not been ful-
5 filled and no probation violation proceeding was initiated prior to the expi-
6 ration of the period of probation, the court may not discharge the person and 7 dismiss the proceedings against the person. The court shall instead issue an 8 order requiring the person to appear and to show cause why the court should 9 not enter an adjudication of guilt as described in subsection (2) of this sec-
10 tion due to the failure of the person to fulfill the terms and conditions of the 11 probation agreement prior to expiration of the period of probation. At the 12 hearing on the order to show cause, after considering any evidence or argu-
13 ment from the district attorney and the person, the court may:

14 “(a) If the court finds that the person has fulfilled the terms and 15 conditions of the probation agreement, discharge the person and dis-
16 miss the proceedings against the person as described in subsection (3)
17 of this section;

18 “[(a)] (b) Order a new period of probation to allow the person to fulfill 19 the terms and conditions of the probation agreement; or

20 “[(b) Enter an adjudication of guilt as described in subsection (2) of this
21 section.]

22 “(c) Resume the criminal proceedings in accordance with the waiver
23 of rights in the probation agreement. If the court proceeds under this
24 paragraph, the person may not contest the sufficiency of the evidence 25 establishing the person’s guilt of the offenses in the accusatory in-
26 strument.

27 “(5) Nothing in this section is intended to restrict a person’s participation
28 in a specialty court or conditional discharge under ORS 475.245.

29 “(6) As used in this section, ‘specialty court’ has the meaning given that 30 term in ORS 137.680.
