I oppose SB 168.

The modification allows a written change or writing of a will without witnesses and the decedent's name can be signed by a third party with the signer's own name. The legislature has added restrictions about unlawfully taking advantage of seniors, so why is it not of concern after death? There is only the word of the third party whether the decedent gave permission - no evidence is required, which means there is no evidence it was even signed before the decedent's death..
