

Submitter:

Susan Collard

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB3190

Preserving historic properties is often a labor of love, and a catalyst for growth and optimism in cities and towns throughout the state. Financial incentives encourage people to do the right thing, and protect the vital, tangible connections between a place and its history. This is money well spent. Please support this bill.