

Oregon State legislature

I am appealing on behalf of the Oregon that we love. Oregon needs this incentive so local investment can determine our future of liveability instead of outside forces buying up our state without concern for its residents. As a native Oregonian of 62 years, there is a reason I have never wanted to live anywhere else. That is being lost by those who only wish to profit from our lack of determination to protect what we have and hold dear.

Norman Gholston