

Dear Chair Sosa, Vice-Chairs Chaichi and Osborne and Members of the Committee:

Animal racing is a cruel undertaking. The managers of the "sport" push the dogs in Greyhound racing to maximum performance for financial gain with minimal financial outlay. This results in dogs racing while injured and living in inhumane conditions. I urge you to stop fueling this cruel situation worldwide. Oregonians are better than that.