October 28, 2024

To: Representative John Lively
From: David Fang-Yen, Senior Deputy Legislative Counsel
Subject: LC 1378—Prohibiting the sale of winning lottery tickets

Enclosed is a draft of LC 1378, which would prohibit the sale or purchase of certain winning lottery tickets.

As I discussed with Andrew Hickerson, the transfer of winning tickets is already prohibited under ORS 461.250 (8) ("The right of any person to a prize shall not be assignable," with limited exceptions). Thus, it is doubtful that LC 1378 would have practical effect if enacted into law.
