I have lived on the water in a floating home for about 15 years.

In that time, my rent has gone from $250 to $904 a month.

I am on Social Security disability, and do not have the options to make more money on a monthly basis.

This effects EVERY aspect of my financial life.

The worse part of this is, that we are on a well, and our monthly rent basically goes for water and garbage.

The owners of this marina have several cars, homes, and take lavish trips on a regular basis.

I am just trying to get by day to day in my home.
