As infrastructure becomes old and unsafe, Oregon's PUC has already overcharged ratepayers to mitigate the risk of igniting wildfires across Oregon. Since every good business sets aside a sustainable reserve, why do they need more? The REAL ECONOMY in Oregon, that which is Resource-based, is all but destroyed by radical environmentalists hinging their "successes" on SB100. There is nothing left in Oregon's pockets to pay for the public sector's irresponsible decisions (do the math). Our request is for Salem to ensure bringing back resource-based careers to increase Oregon's wealth - not just service-based jobs as the proverbial ship continues to sink - while ensuring that only legal citizens are hired on merit alone. Respects go to those who know exactly what we're referring to, and thanks in advance for implementing Common Sense back into Oregon's economy.
