Burned down in the Alameda fire. Have now relocated to another park in Phoenix and am concerned that the rental price we pay every month keeps rising. I know there has to be a compromise and I understand that Owners and Renters both should be heard so I am so happy you have taken this battle on. I know noone will be completely happy and hoping that opening dialog is the best hope for this situation. i have appreciated everything you have done and are still doing since the fire, infact I remember meeting you as you were doing dishes at one of the community dinners at the Church in Phoenix. I am wishing that the percent of the yearly raises make it possible that my family and the rest of the park people can live within their meager means and that peace will happen. Thanks for listening and all the ork you do. Ginny Moss
