

Submitter:

Jared Black

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

House Committee On Revenue

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

HB2301

There is a saying "You don't want to die in Oregon". That's because the state will grab you children's inheritance. I am writing this while gazing out the window at a fine 75 degree day in sunny Arizona. I am here as a test to see if Arizona is better for me than Oregon. So far Arizona is looking good. Changing the inheritance law would tend to bring Oregon back in favor.