TRAVELS ~ EATS ~ WRITES

Hello

My name is Su Stella. My husband and I are huge supporters of the Oakridge Farmers Market.

We volunteer to set up the tables, and help vendors.

I write cookbooks and work first hand providing recipes for food boxes. I plan on handing out and possibly demonstrating cooking tips.

Our town is a food desert.

Rip-off Ray's grocery and Dollar General are our only food options.

Please keep our farmers market stay vital!

Thanks
Su Stella
