RE: Support for HB 2792

To the House Committee On Labor and Workplace Standards,

It is absolutely crucial to have financial transparency on hospital "strikebreaking" costs. This is essential information that hospitals should be required to disclose when refusing to provide a fair and equal contract to nurses and other Healthcare workers while negotiating a new contract. No hospital should be able to claim new contracts are too "expensive" and "unsustainable" while hiding how many millions are being spent on strike replacement workers.

Thank you for accepting my testimony and I look forward to your support.
