Alot of camp grounds are off of roads , the roads lead to trails. So many people get tickets for riding 100ft on to get to trails. This should be legal. Quads are safe and you should me able to make the street legal. Certain dirt bike already have legislation that allows certain models to be made street legal. If you can modify any gas or diesel fueled motor vehicles as long as they can adhere to the speed limits , meaning able to go the Hwy speed SAFELY, they should be able to ride on streets and minor Hwy's
